

MISCELLANEOUS

art – are (Example: Thou art quite loud.)

betwixt – between

caddish – wicked

costermonger – seller of fruit and vegetables

dost – do (Example: Thou dost read well.)

-est – suffix attached to verbs (Example: When thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble)

-eth – suffix attached to verbs (Example: He maketh my supper.)

fishmonger – seller of fish

hast – have when using thou (Example: Thou hast visited me.)

hath – have when talking of someone else (Example: He hath visited us.)

ironmonger – seller of goods made of metal shalt – future tense of shall (Example: Thou shalt not wander in the woods.)

thee – you (Example: I will praise thee.)

thou – you (Example: Thou art my friend.)

warmonger – one who encourages war whence – where (Example: Dost thou know from whence he came?)

wilt – will (Example: Wilt he go there?)